MATAMATA FISHING CLUB NEWSLETTER

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Isn't it great that we have such a consistent group of sponsors in place for each competition, trust me we are the envy of many clubs. So where you can please support them in return.

May turned out to be another very good competition with over 50 anglers weighing in fish, and course with awesome sponsors, AMI, Fairview Motors, Paul Jones Contracting and the Laurent Brothers, there were plenty of great prizes. Well done to Hughy for another big snapper over that magical 20 pound mark, and although not announced on the night due to a computer glitch, Hugh also took out the 3 bag. Best trout taken out by the wily old fox Allen Cossill, also to show that ladies can do anything, Megan Brown slayed the best kingfish.

I have to say it is so cool to see so many juniors weighing in fish, congratulations to Sophie Dalton-Tipping for an awesome snapper of 3.8kgs and Beau Mitchell with one of 2.7kgs, very nice guys.

With only two competitions to go the points table is getting very tight. There is a fair bit of friendly rivalry, coming to the surface so I dare say there might be plenty of anglers out taking advantage of the three day competition – yes that's right Monday is a public holiday, so make sure you are out there taking advantage of the Queen's birthday weekend. There will be lots of excellent prizes up for grabs with the sponsors being our very good regulars, Harry Fort Decorators, Allenco Marine, and I'm pleased to add on Arrum Ali. Arrum is only reasonably new to the club but feels he has had so much out of the club already he wanted to sponsor a comp – great stuff ah.

Part of the prizes will be lucky member draws for a live bait tank set up, and two people will be drawn out to go out on Wades magnificent boat SMADAS – if you were at the last comp you would have seen the machine, what a beauty. See you all on "Monday" the 5th June.

Happy Fishing,
Bungey
